Wine Country Network Extends the Canned Challenge Competition

Competition producers will continue accepting entries through October 21.

BROOMFIELD, Colorado, September 27, 2023 -- Wine Country Network, Inc., publisher of Wine Country International® Magazine and producer of numerous highly respected professional beverage competitions, has announced that due to a strong response, it is accepting entries for the Canned Challenge through October 21, 2023.

The Canned Challenge is the world's first professionally judged competition to define excellence in canned alcoholic drinks. The Canned Challenge Tasting Contest will be conducted double-blind by a prestigious panel of mixologists, bartenders, beverage professionals, sommeliers, buyers, and trade members. The Canned Challenge Packaging and Design Contest will be juried by a committee of art directors, designers, and retailers, focusing on critical elements that help a brand stand out from its competitors.

Canned alcoholic drinks are convenient and enjoyable in various situations, including at home, on the beach, on the boat, on the golf course, or camping. When the COVID-19 pandemic impacted everyone, canned alcoholic drink products became the fastest growing category in the beverage industry.

The 2023 Canned Challenge is now accepting canned beverages in the following categories:

- Hard Seltzer •Spiked Spritzers •Premixed / Ready-To-Drink (RTD) Cocktails
- Wine •Mixers •Hard Cider •Hard Kombucha •Sake

"We are excited to host the 4th Annual Canned Challenge, witnessing the exciting evolution in RTD cocktails, spritzers, and canned wines," said Christopher J. Davies, Wine Country Network CEO and Co-Founder. "We want to identify the best products in this exciting category!"

The 2023 Canned Challenge will announce winners in early November, right before the busy holiday buying season. Consumers can view the winners list online and seek top-scored products locally. Winners will have the opportunity to promote their results with royalty-free digital images of the competition medals and other valuable brand marketing assets.
